

THE OLD MAN

4. The Genius on Cleveland Street

CUE: OLD MAN: "Silly? You'll see—you'll see! I'll have you know that I received an official notice that I have made the Semi-Finals!! You could win $50,000 or hundreds of valuable prizes."

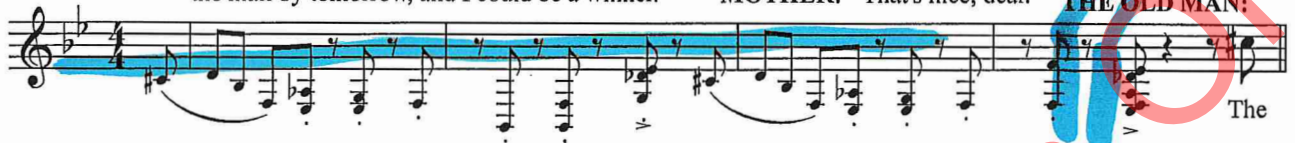

Music & lyrics by
Benj Pasek & Justin Paul

Lazy swing ♩ = 128

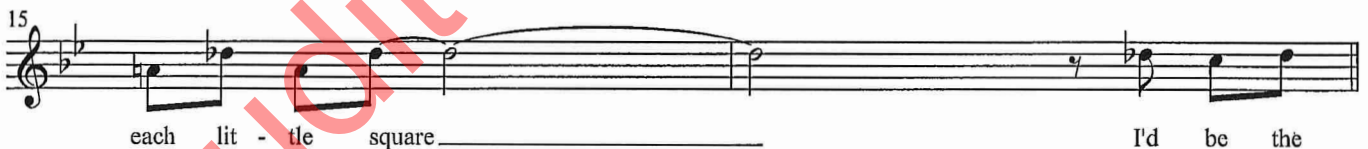

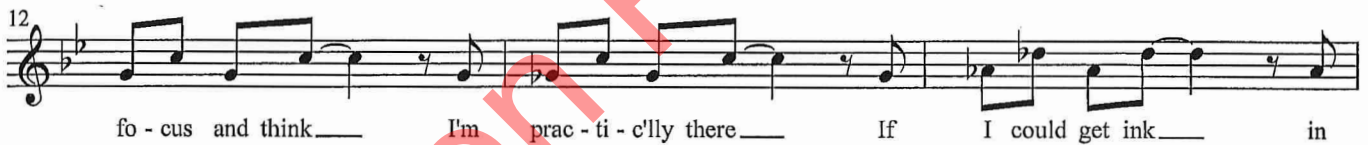

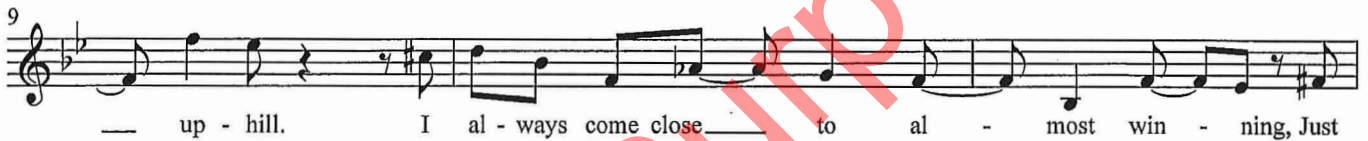

THE OLD MAN: "I just need to finish, get this in the mail by tomorrow, and I could be a winner."

MOTHER: "That's nice, dear."

THE OLD MAN:

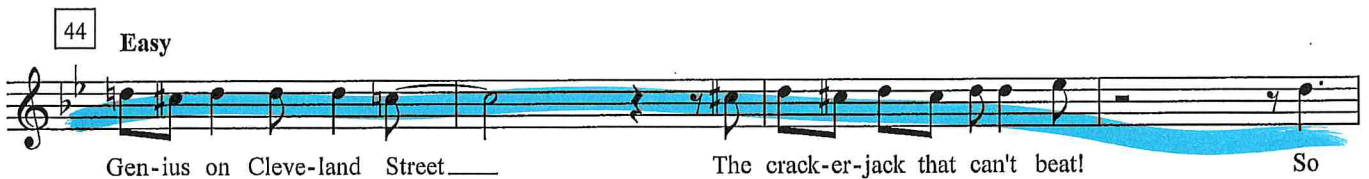

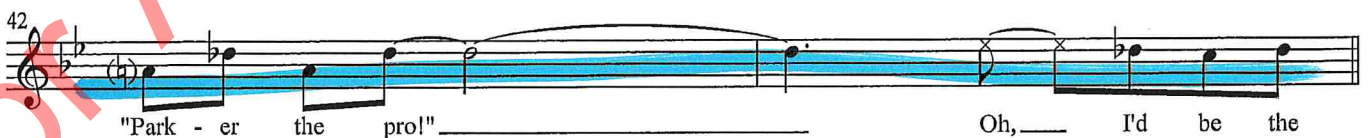

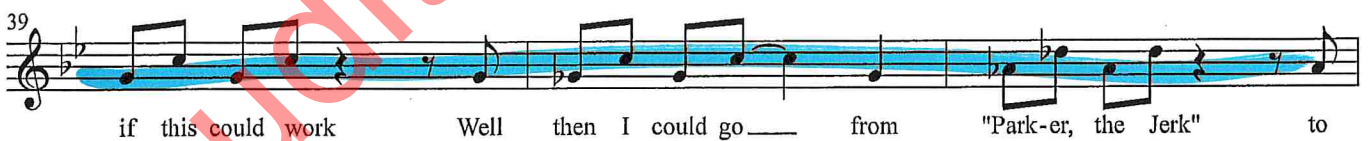

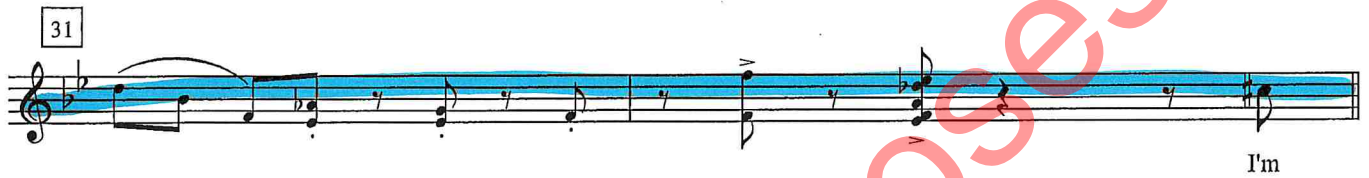

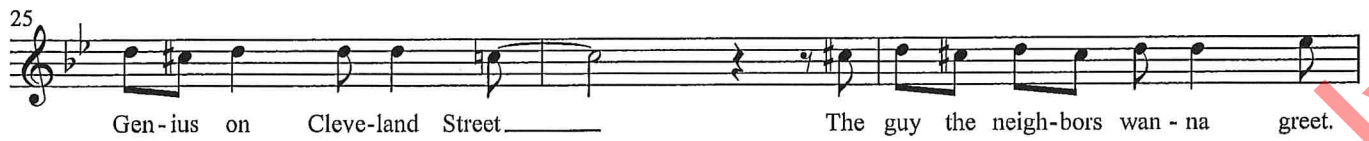

6

17

4. The Genius on Cleveland Street

4. The Genius on Cleveland Street

48

smart it's ob-scene, the Gen-ius on Cleve-land Street

52

(straight eighths) (swung eighths)

"Da - nish prince that Shake - speare penned. Stabbed and poi - soned in the end.

54

f

Ham - let! Ha!

56

Colla voce (a bit slower)
(swung eighths)

"Cap-tain Hook he must de-stroy. Tin-ker-bell's pal. For-e-ver a boy P - E - T -

59

E - R...

mp

63

A tempo

Mis-ter Par-ker, you're the best! No quest - tion you're the best they've e-ver seen!

66

What a Gen -

4. The Genius on Cleveland Street

68

Driving swing (not slower)

- ius on Cleve-land Street_____ The whiz_____ whose puz-zle is com-pletel_____ If

MOTHER:

The Gen-ius on Cleve-land Street! It's some-how com-plete

72

With intensity

I send it in,_____ and some-how I win,_____ they'll see_____ I'm the

76

Gen-ius on Cleve-land Street_____ who won't go down in de-feat!_____

MOTHER: Tpts/Bsn

The Gen-ius on Cleve-land Street

80

Let this be it! Let this be the one for the 82

gen - ius_____ on Cleve - land_____

84

Street_____